“Modern Overseas” opens large-scale flagship shop to deliver comprehensive one-stop overseas studies services

(Hong Kong, 30 March 2012) - Modern Education Group Limited (Stock code: 1082) (“Modern Education” or “The Group”) held an opening ceremony for the flagship shop of its subsidiary brand “Modern Overseas” which is located in MongKok’s Argyle Centre (phase 2). The ribbon cutting ceremony was conducted by Chairman of Modern Education, Mr. Ng Kam Lun (Ken Sir), and Chief Executive Officer, Ms. Catherine Yiu. It was a lively event as representatives of educational institutions worldwide were invited.

Modern Education started collaborating with “Global Education Network” in March 2011 and has been expanding into the overseas studies services market since then. Last year, the market’s demand for overseas studies consultation increased significantly. And as the business of “Modern Overseas” rapidly grows, the Group has decided to expand and open a large-scale flagship shop to cope with the imminent growing demand and to provide better overseas studies services.

There is sound co-operation between Modern Education and “Modern Overseas”, and after the expansion, both will provide students with the most comprehensive one-stop overseas studies services. There are currently many students of Modern Education who desire to study abroad, and the Group will aim to help these students achieve their dreams. Moreover, the Group can also provide students with preparation courses for international English exams that are necessary for overseas study such as IELTS and TOEFL, thus providing the most extensive support for students who wish to study abroad.

Mr. Ng Kam Lun (Ken Sir), Chairman of Modern Education, said, “The Group will fully support the development of “Modern Overseas”; we hope that we can help students achieve their dreams of studying abroad and allow them a fruitful educational experience through our one-stop overseas studies services.”
